

Samui – Coconut Paradise

One of the most popular beach holiday destinations that should not be missed, Koh Samui, located in the Gulf of Thailand, is the third largest island of Thailand which is around one hour by flight from Bangkok. Amazing with the legendary strangely shaped rocks, Hin Ta Hin Yai, of an old couple, being an surprisingly attraction and the symbol of Samui as well as the coconut trees which are fertile all over the island. Enjoy cruising to Anghong National Marine Park to view the magnificent emerald inner sea, sheer limestone cliffs and stunning rock formations, or diving into the paradise of superb coral reefs and wonderful underwater scenery. Most vibrant night activities can be found around the beaches of famous lively Chaweng and Lamai including the marvelous performances of talented entertainers in stylish surroundings.

Afternoon at leisure

19:00-22:00 Dinner at Chef Chom's Restaurant

Cuisine: Thai
Location: Tongsai
Capacity: 100

Chef Chom's Restaurant is located on the hill leading down to the beach, in The Tongsai Bay. Dine in style, surrounded by tropical greenery on a pleasant outdoor terrace, cooled by the sea breeze. It offers the tastes of authentically royal Thai cuisine by M.L. Puang.

Besides the royal Thai cuisine, the restaurant also introduces you to the local, southern Thai food which the chefs have put together their own local recipes to create a tasty yet original home cuisine.

Or:

19:00-23:00 Dinner with the View: The Cliff Bar & Grill

Cuisine: Mediterranean
Location: Lamai
Capacity: 70 seats

The Cliff Bar & Grill is more than just a fabulous location. The food presents a grand tour of the Mediterranean, with an accent on Portuguese, Italian and Spanish. The setting, as the name suggests, is breathtaking. It's high up on the mountainous section of the ring-road between Chaweng and Lamai, and looks down upon huge natural boulders next to the water's edge and across a picturesque bay to a tropical headland.

A Visit to Chaweng

After dinner we will drop for a stroll around in Chaweng for leisure night life. Those who want to return directly to hotel could join the vans back directly. Possible arrangement for pick up at a pre-designated point and time can be added.

Day 02 KOH SAMUI

Breakfast at hotel

08:30-16:30 Day Excursion to Angthong National Park

Speed boat trip to Koh Angthong and Mae Ko Island. One of the most beautiful national marine parks in Thailand consists of 42 separate islands, interspersed with tranquil blue lagoons, coral reefs, and deserted sandy beaches. There are fascinating rock formations, beautiful natural caves, and even a salt lake enclosed by steep ochre-colored rock walls.

You will visit two of these islands on this tour. The journey time from Samui to the marine park is about 1.30 hours. You will then transfer to shore by long tailed boats. On the first island you will walk up 400 meters height to the viewpoint, where you have a breathtaking view over the park. On a clear day, you can even see the mainland and Koh Samui. The second island brings you a scenic salt-water lake, which is connected underground with the sea and contains a lot of colorful fishes. Local buffet lunch will be served at the Park's headquarter. Free time in the afternoon for sunbathing or Sea Kayaking.

Enhancement during the trip:

- Charter of La Fortune Junk for pirate ship atmosphere
- Fortune Teller (palm reader or tarot card)
- Beach Games on the beach

ON THE ROCKS

Cuisine: Fusion
Location: Bophut
Capacity: 40-60 seats

The Signature restaurant of Sixsenses Hideaway Samui, "Dining on the Rocks", is setting new standards for innovative food concepts, great service and of course that famous view and atmosphere. The cuisine is distinctively different and we refer to it as New Asian Cuisine with a cross over accent. Our philosophy is in combining tastes of east and west, different textures and contrasts of hot and cold to really give your mouth a treat that will have it crying out for more. The architecture is unique and consists of nine terraced decks of weathered teak and bamboo combining open air and covered seating areas. The view is an uninterrupted 270 degree view of the surrounding islands and Gulf of Siam.

THE PIER RESTAURANT

Cuisine: International
Location: Bo Phut
Capacity: 150 seats

The Pier in Fisherman's Village is a cool and comfortable concept restaurant with a sea view, colourful bar and cool music. Thai, Seafood and International food is served and a number of vegetarian options are also available on request. A must visit for a laid back and entertaining night out.
